

“The END”: The King and His Bride Share Eternal Bliss Rev. 19 - 22

The grand story of the Bible ends “happy ever-after.” It does so, clearly and certainly, for those who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ; for those who become, by the Spirit’s invitation and a thirsty soul, the “Bride” of Christ!

Revelation ends with an unmistakable emphasis on the blessings and glory of the “Bride” of Christ.

This morning, let us trace this “most-glorious” Biblical theme, and allow it to test, to strengthen and to excite the faith of each one of us here today.

- A. Ephesians 5:31,32 - This Profound Mystery is pictured in every wedding: Christ & His Church:
- B. John 14:2-3; “In My Father’s house are ... If I go away, I will come again, and take you to ...”
- C. Revelation 19 - 22:
  - The Preparation of the Bride (19:6-8) -
  - The Marriage Supper of the LAMB (19:9,11f)
  - The Dwelling Place of King & Bride (21:2,9)
  - The Spirit’s Invitation Echoed by the Bride (22:17) - A “Great Commission” Reminder!
- D. Psalm 45 - The Royal Wedding of God’s Anointed (Messiah) - AND “Happy Ever-After!”
