

Psalm 34:1-10

If you truly appreciate the grace and mercy that God has extended to you, then you should be able to recite these words of David as though they were your very own. For example, David writes in verse four that: "I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears." What Christian has not needed to seek the LORD when they faced fear, whether it be fear of man or fear of the unknown or even fear of death, only to be relieved of that fear by God's word? So as you read these first 10 verses of Psalm 24, please pause for a few moments after each verse to consider how the thought expressed applies to your life, and in doing so make these beautiful words of David your own words of praise and thanksgiving.
